WELCOME TO WOLFIE'S

Once prominently located on Collins Avenue in Miami Beach, the Original Wolfie's Delicatessen had been a celebrity favorite since it first opened its doors in 1947. Using the finest ingredients, the Original Wolfie's brings back the most renowned items prepared at its restaurant and from its sister eateries in Miami, Wolfie Cohen's Rascal House, Pumpernik's, and Thal Bros. Epicure Market, in addition to Southern California's Jerry's Famous Deli.

From the 1970's until the restaurant's closing in 2001, when the property was sold to a developer, Wolfie's was featured in film and on television. The '80's/'90's sitcom, THE GOLDEN GIRLS, starring Betty White and Bea Arthur, often referenced the characters eating at Wolfie's. Wolfie's was also seen on the TV show MIAMI VICE with Don Johnson. It prominently appeared in the movie, THE CREW, headlining Richard Dreyfuss and Burt Reynolds. Notables from different walks of life frequented Wolfie's, such as the sports world's Mohammad Ali and Deion Sanders, entertainment stars Al Jolson, Jackie Gleason, and Liza Minelli, and mob boss Meyer Lansky.
